

How do I get my placement approved?

You CANNOT complete placement before the subject starts. Placement must be approved by the subject lecturer. The subject outline will have further information on the date by which this approval process will take place AND Assessment Task 1 which is critical to placement approval.