

Academic Affairs Policy

Volume: A2. Academics	A2.05.2 Use of Human Subjects in Research	Responsible Office: Academic Affairs
Chapter 05: Research	Effective Date: mm/dd/yy Currently Under Review	Responsible Officer: Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

POLICY STATEMENT

The purpose of this policy is to outline Northeastern Illinois University's commitment to protecting human subjects in research studies and guaranteeing the authority and independence of the Institutional Review Board (IRB). It further describes the roles, responsibilities, and appointment of IRB members, and outlines the activities subject to IRB jurisdiction and review.

PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

Northeastern Illinois University ("The University") seeks to adequately protect every person who may be involved in research and training projects as part of its commitment to the pursuit of excellence in teaching, research, and public service. The University is guided by the ethical principles regarding research involving humans as subjects as set forth in the report of the National Commission for the Protection of Human Subjects of Biomedical and Behavioral Research entitled Ethical Principles and Guidelines for the Protection of Human Subjects of Research (the Belmont Report). These ethical principles are: 1. Respect for Persons. Related subjects also know as a... The University will further comply with the policies set forth in 45 CFR 46 which provide additional protection pertaining to: 1) research, development, and related activities involving human subject fetuses, pregnant women, and in-vitro fertilization of human ova; 2) prisoners involved in research; 3) research that involves children, individuals with diminished decision-

