

JIN H. KIM

Local Address:

1245 Elmwood Ave., Apt. 202

Evanston, IL 60202

Telephone: (773) 573-2143

Email: j-kim24@neiu.edu

Permanent Address:

525 S. Lafayette Park Place

Apt. 112

Los Angeles, CA 90057

EDUCATION

University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, WI

Ph.D.: Social Welfare, Applied Economics (Minor), August 2010

Awards: Hartford Doctoral Fellows Pre-Dissertation Awardee

Doctoral Student Teaching Excellence Award

Thesis: "■■ PI

Kim, J. (2014). Demand for prescription drugs, Medicare Part D take-up, and prescription drug use among the elderly. (Revise and resubmit).

Kim, J. & Frank-Miller, E. (2014). Poverty, health insurance status, and health service utilization among the elderly. Journal of Poverty. (Forthcoming).

Kim, J. (2014). Examining racial-ethnic and gender disparities in poverty among the elderly. Handbook on Poverty in the United States. New York, NY: Routledge. (In press).

Kim, J. (2013). SSI participation among the elderly: A hazard model approach. Journal of Poverty, 17(2), 217-233.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Kim, J., Kim, J.H., & Koh, E. (2014). Health service utilization patterns among Korean- Americans in Chicago. In S. Kim & K.C. Kim (Eds.), Koreans in the windy city II. (Forthcoming).

Ngwe, J. E. (2013). Social work research methods: An invitation. J. Kim, (Ed.). Boston, MA: Pearson

RESEARCH
EXPERIENCE

Social, Behavioral, & Economic Sciences (SBE) fellow, January 2006 – August 2010

School of Social Work, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Project: National Science Foundation Alliance for Graduate Education and the Professoriate

"Evaluation of Underrepresented Minority Recruitment and Retention Strategies in the Social, Behavioral, and Economic Sciences"

Designed survey instruments for use by five academic departments as part of a coordinated effort to increase the diversity of graduate students on campus. Drafted IRB application for expedited review of human subjects research. Developed and maintained a central database containing relevant information on prospective and current underrepresented minority (URM) graduate students as well as recruitment and retention activities. Entered, coded, analyzed, and interpreted data. Drafted annual report for purposes of annual grant renewal. Tracked prospective (URM) graduate students through the application, matriculation, and retention processes.

Project Assistant, May 1996 – August 1996

Department of Sociology, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY

Project: Cornell Microsimulation (CORSIM) Project

Prepared cross-tabulations using TPL Tables for a then, forthcoming book by Associate Professor Steven B. Caldwell on race and wealth.

PROFESSIONAL
EXPERIENCE

Attorney, February 2003 – August 2003

Midong Choi & Associates, P.C., Chicago, IL

Represented Korean clients in real estates sales and purchases and in civil and commercial litigation disputes. Counseled Korean business entities regarding various legal issues, including a Korean news publication with respect to issues of fraud and defamation. Drafted closing documents, pleadings and discovery motions. Researched pyramid schemes, libel and landlord/tenant issues.

Law Clerk, May 2001 – August 2001

Governmental Affairs Division, Missouri State Attorney General's Office, Jefferson City, MO

Prepared questions for depositions of expert witnesses. Drafted complaints, admissions, joint stipulations, and summary determinations. Researched agency issues, garnishment execution and supersedeas, and property rights with respect to Medicaid Waiver services. Attended trials, depositions, board hearings, and law day. Observed moot court sessions.

Social Work Intern, August 2000 – May 2001

Youth Advocacy Unit, Missouri State Public Defender's Office, Saint Louis, MO

Conducted psychosocial assessments of children and developed working relationships with local schools, community centers, and private and public agencies for referral purposes. Assisted attorneys during the disposition stage of the legal process by finding alternative sentences that were in the best interests of the child. Reviewed social files and investigations.

Law/Social Work Intern, August 1999 – August 2000

Children's Legal Alliance, Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, Saint Louis, MO

Researched legal issues and drafted memoranda pertaining to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Performed general case management duties. Conducted needs assessments of clients, identifying their strengths and weaknesses. Served as liaison between clients and school officials and accompanied clients to meetings and interviews. Researched and compiled lists of resources tailored to each client's particular educational and social service related needs. Reviewed clients' school and mental health records.

Paralegal, July 1997 – July 1998

Corporate Finance Department, Seward & Kissel, New York, NY

Assisted attorneys in the preparation of legal documents for PLT Finance, Inc. Compiled and distributed documents to clients and other parties involved in the PLT revolving credit transaction. Prepared UCC Financing Statements. Proofread documents related to PLT transactions.

Student Extern, January 1996 – May 1996