

Demonstrations in other locations are strictly prohibited. Activities which restrict access to, egress from, or passage through public areas of the campus, or which threaten a breach of the peace in such public areas are not permitted. Orders to disperse, issued by authorized University personnel, shall be obeyed.

c. Specific activities which are prohibited

- 1) Harassing or otherwise interfering with orderly conduct of classes or other University activities.
- 2) Harassing or otherwise interfering with activities of University employees or visitors.
- 3) Noise-making activity or congestion that disturbs classes or any other scheduled event or University activity.
- 4) Damage to property or littering of University premises.
- 5) Obstruction of automobile and pedestrian traffic.
- 6) Blocking of entrances to buildings and driveways.
- 7) Blocking of passageways and/or stairwells.

d. Enforcement

1) Violations

Alleged violations of this policy by students should be reported to the Office of Student Affairs. In cases where faculty and/or other employees are involved, the Provost and Vice-President for Administrative Affairs (or their designees) should be informed. Non-University constituents will be
