

Enrollment Fact Sheet

Fall, 2012

Office of Institutional Research

- Enrollment is down for nearly all sectors, with the exception of new freshmen (up 9.5%, or 90 students) and new graduate students (up 8.4%, or 27 students).
- Total enrollment for the University is down -3.7% (431), with graduate enrollment showing the largest relative decline (-6.9%, or 150 students). Total FTE is down -3.6% (274).
- It appears that new students are entering the University at a higher rate than last fall but continuing students are returning at a lower rate.

