

Brommel-Schaack Determination Against All Odds Scholarship

This scholarship has been created to honor a man who never received the encouragement or opportunity to attend college. The odds defeated him. Yet Robert Schaack is one of the brightest, meaning in work, especially with his hands. He can fix anything; wire any circuits; trouble shoot mechanical and electrical failures. He has doubted his intellect but it is as strong as his mechanical talents. I wanted to create a scholarship for someone like Bob who if given the chance would also be academically successful. When Bob goes into re